

Bridgepoint Adds Vice President Subhash Marineni to its Growing Midwest Investment Bank

Release: August 1, 2018.

Omaha, NE – Bridgepoint Investment Banking, a leading full-service Midwest investment bank, announces and welcomes Mr. Subhash Marineni as Vice President of Investment Banking.

The addition of Mr. Marineni will support Bridgepoint’s continued growth and unparalleled results-oriented M&A advisory and capital raising services to Midwest and national companies.

Previously, he spent more than eight years at New York-based investment bank Mid-Market Securities.

His breadth of experience involves mergers and acquisitions, including sell-side/buy-side assignments; strategic relationships; joint ventures and licensing and royalty agreements; as well as equity and debt capital raising assignments. Mr. Marineni has advised on more than twenty completed transactions across a broad range of industry sectors including healthcare, energy, technology, business services, industrials, agriculture and media and telecommunications. Mr. Marineni also holds FINRA Series 79 and 63 licenses.

“Subhash brings his deep track record of success in M&A and capital raising at a leading New York investment bank to Bridgepoint. Subhash’s addition to the firm reflects our ongoing commitment to deliver a real, institutional investment banking option and institutional capital reach to Midwest companies,” said Bridgepoint Managing Principal Matt Plooster. He further adds, “Bridgepoint provides a unique platform for top-performing Wall Street investment bankers to leverage their skills in an entrepreneurial environment and growth culture while making a real difference for privately-held companies and their owners.”

Mr. Marineni received a Master of Business Administration degree in Finance from the Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was elected to honor societies Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi.
