Atlantis Academies was awarded Favorite Program for Special Needs by South Florida FamilyLife.

Miami, Florida (July 1, 2022) – Atlantis Academies, a ChanceLight school, announced today that it has been awarded Favorite Program for Special Needs by South Florida FamilyLife, an award-winning, complimentary monthly magazine whose goal is to serve and enlighten their readers with information about local events, programs, news, and businesses throughout South Florida geared specifically to families in Broward, Miami-Dade, and south Palm Beach County.

“It is an honor to be selected for this award by the families in our community who recognize Atlantis Academies for their dedication to supporting students with various learning needs. Each of our Atlantis Academy campuses strive to provide a safe and nurturing environment to enhance our students’ academic and social growth, and help our students reach their full potential.” ~ Mark DiConsiglio, SVP of Atlantis Academies Operations

This award is nominated and awarded solely by the readers of South Florida FamilyLife as a way for local families to share where their trusted, tried-and-true places are to be. Awarded annually, the Atlantis Academies is a proud recipient of the 2022 Favorite Program for Special Needs.
