

SPARK HIRE

“Meet” Candidates Faster Than Ever Before

See why thousands of organizations use Spark Hire’s video interviewing platform to make better, more collaborative, and quicker hiring decisions.

Why video interviews?

Spark Hire is more than just a solution for connecting remotely with your candidates.

Screen candidates more efficiently

- Reduce time spent on scheduling preliminary interviews
- Candidates record interviews anytime, anywhere
- Watch a few minutes of video instead of a 30-minute phone screen

Foster better collaboration with hiring managers

- Instantly share recorded interviews with hiring managers
- Get feedback via ratings and comments
- Your hiring team stays on the same page

The Spark Hire platform

If you're looking for a video interviewing solution that balances simplicity with all the features you need to achieve your goals, look no further.

One-Way Video Interviews

Gain more insight into candidates in a fraction of the time by having candidates self-record video answers to your interview questions.

Live Video Interviews

Interview candidates in real-time no matter where they are and record the interview so it can be referred back to at a later time.

Branding

Build your candidate experience from the ground up, so interviews are consistent and personalized.
