

CoreHealth Partner Support

Take your wellness company to the next level as a platform expert. CoreHealth is your strategic technology AND business partner - giving you leads, support and tools to grow!

WHAT WE PROVIDE

When you work with CoreHealth as a platform expert, we support you by:

- Helping you develop your programs on our platform and then train you to do the same for your clients - you'll be self-sufficient and in full control.
- Providing technical support to help you get the most of our platform along with ongoing recommendations.
- Assisting you with platform demonstrations to prospective clients until you are confident to sell on your own.
- Providing a helpful resellers toolkit of marketing tools, templates and presentations to help you sell.
- Helping you to respond to RFP questions for functional and security-related questions.
- Releasing at least two new software updates each year so you always stay on the cutting edge.
- Continually growing our third-party, best-in-class network of wellness vendors to complement your existing programs - all seamlessly accessible via the CoreHealth platform.
- Offering joint marketing opportunities.
- Regular Account Management meetings to hear your ideas, concerns and to help you stay informed of new developments.
- Providing a sales consult to coach you on how to successfully demo your programs on our platform.
- Referring new leads to you to help you grow!
