EMILE COHL ATELIER

Envision Your Future Beyond Its Current Bounds: Immerse Yourself in a Creative Environment Designed to Advance Your Career.

Emile Cohl Atelier is a social impact animation educational institution. ECA was founded in 2019 as a nonprofit in collaboration with Ecole Emile Cohl, a prestigious award-winning French institution established in 1984.

The Emile Cohl Atelier Preparatory School Program operates under the ideology that high school students gain more from hands-on exposure to elite instruction and experiences that allow them to hone their skill set by focusing on artistic fundamentals and portfolio design.

Our instructors are working professionals who educate and nurture our students' abilities to draw what they see through in-person courses, helping participants understand exactly what it takes to get accepted to one of the premier art institutes across the country or our elite Career Accelerator Program.

ECA welcomes all high school students who want to captivate admission boards or apply for our selective Career Accelerator Program to help them stand out among the top applicants and solidify their positions as elite artists who use drawing fundamentals as a key component for admission and deserve top-notch consideration.

Competitive Portfolios Start With Essential Artistic Skills: Let's Build Yours Together.

Premier art institutes across the nation and our selective Career Accelerator Program look for students who will represent their brands using fundamental skills that include expert-level direct observations, mirrored self-portraits, and figure drawings.

To enter a highly competitive environment, and be seriously considered for admission, applicants must have essential drawing skills that can be extracted from their current sketchbooks, then expanded and perfected.

That is what the Emile Cohl Atelier Preparatory School Program offers.

We provide a creative environment led by working professionals who educate and nurture our students' abilities to draw what they see through in-person courses in Los Angeles, rigorously structured over 16-week sessions.

All ECA preparatory program courses cover the essential admission requirements art schools and our Career Accelerator Program desire and can be explored during a single course or by combining several learning opportunities per session

MONDAY OR WEDNESDAY 4PM – 7PM PST

$1,500

This course covers the essentials of anatomy, character design, acting and posing for artists, and ends with a dedicated portfolio design session to prepare students for admission essays and interviews.

OBSERVATION DRAWING

TUESDAY 4PM – 7PM PST

$1,500

This course includes insight and perspective to successfully achieve prop design, plaster drawing, still life, and basic life drawing skills and ends with a dedicated portfolio design session to prepare students for admission essays and interviews.

TRADITIONAL 2D ANIMATION

THURSDAY 4PM – 7PM PST

$1,500

This course offers a solid foundation in 2D animation that can be applied to computer-generated images and 3D technology by focusing on hand-drawn, frame-by-frame animation and ends with a dedicated portfolio design session to prepare students for admission essays and interviews.

PERSPECTIVE & BACKGROUND DESIGN

FRIDAY 4PM – 7PM PST

$1,500

Learn to put your characters, props, and storytelling elements into perspective and bring your illustrations to life. Our Perspective & Background Design course covers the fundamentals of background design, perspective, basic life drawing, and set design to highlight a range of thematic content within your portfolio.

At ECA Prep School We Believe in Inclusion, Not Restrictive Admission Requirements

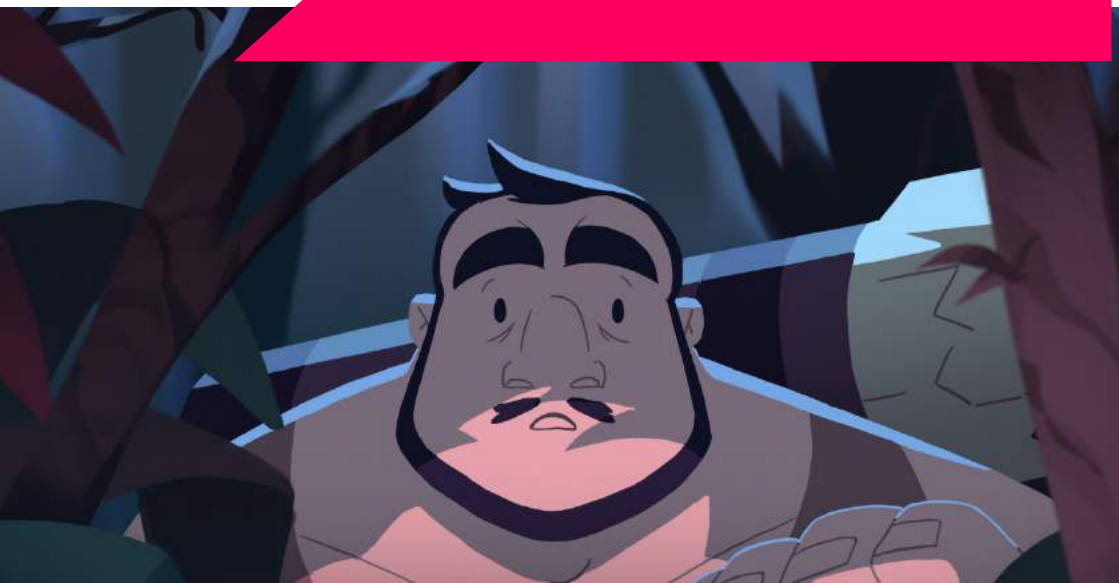

Leading art institutes across the country and our Emile Cohl Atelier Career Accelerator Program receive thousands of applications and portfolios each year, yet only admit a limited number of students who have exceptional drawing skills that reflect fundamental talent.

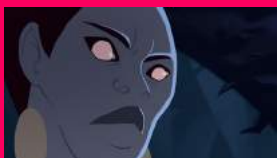

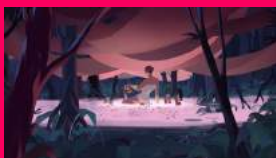

Emile Cohl Atelier's Preparatory School Program equips participants with the resources and tools they need to maximize their admission opportunities through finely curated courses led by skilled instructors who provide creative guidance and portfolio design sessions to prepare students for admission essays and interviews.

To qualify for enrollment in ECA Preparatory School, students must be 16 or older on the first day of their chosen session, understand basic English, and have an interest in sharpening their artistic skills to pursue admission in a premier art institute or our Career Accelerator Program.

That means no minimum GPA, SAT/ACT scores, transcripts, background checks, or letters of recommendation are required to enroll.

Whether you are interested in a single course or prefer to enroll in multiple programs using a discounted rate during the same session, ECA Prep School has what you need to stand apart during any admission process.

Explore Our Adaptable Preparatory School Program Sessions and Courses

Prospective art institute and Emile Cohl Atelier Career Accelerator applicants are invited to explore our versatile Prep School Program by choosing sessions that allow them to build their portfolios for success.

ECA offers two sessions per year and operates from 4pm-7pm, so high school students can hone their creative skills without lengthy admission requirements or interfering with their existing obligations.
