"...Lori, you have the voice of an angel. You are absolutely amazing."
President Joseph R. Biden

"Lori Williams is a special talent. She can seamlessly move from jazz to R and B where the listener can feel at home with her in either genre. It has been a pleasure working with her, as she has set the bar for vocalists to come. If you are not familiar with Lori Williams, check her out - you will not be disappointed!"

Terri Lyne Carrington

"I'm a fan of real music and these days I don't get to hear a lot of it. I love artists that maintain the integrity of music and build on it as well. That's Lori Williams to me. A beautiful voice that commands attention. She captivates you with her own musical style and personal elegance. She's a musical blessing."

Will Downing

"From the very first note I played with Lori, I knew she was blessed with a very special gift. Her instincts and musical choices are just right and fill your heart with joy... She gets it!"

Nathan East

"If you'd like to hear sensual tones encompassing beautiful colors and sublime phrasing...Listen to Lori Williams."

Maysa

"Grace, beauty, talent, and sheer power to stimulate one's musical sense of curiosity. All these words describe Lori Williams - one of the great vocal treasures of our time."

Najee

"My dear friend, Lori Williams, exemplifies the term 'a Singers Singer' in style, passion, and content. Her songs are sung with a smooth yet emotional delivery, with impeccable phrasing. Her choices of lyrical themes are those that touch the human soul, combined with all of the harmony and melody of a sultry and seasoned chanteuse. Both my wife, Lillian, and I agree, that Lori Williams is 'the Real Thing'! Keep listening and you'll see what we mean."

Phil Perry

"Lori Williams' beautiful voice glides soulfully and effortlessly across a smooth and inviting rhythmic landscape with messages of abundance, joy, and affirmation."

Dianne Reeves

"Whenever I think of Lori Williams only 'superlatives' come to mind. She's intelligent, caring, talented, beautiful, funny, sassy and SO much more. I've been involved in music at a high level for over 35 years and Lori is one of the few singers I've worked with that not only sings incredibly but equally understands, theoretically, what she's singing. There are very few singers who I refer to as a 'musician'. Lori is one of them."

Anthony Wellington

She's got a soft-edged, creamy voice that's a natural vehicle for introspection, but also one that you could happily curl up and get lost in. It's stunning, supple, subtle, sumptuous, soulful music—let's call that the five S's of Lori Williams, shall we?"
