

PRESS RELEASE – August 21, 2017

Alexandra Laxmi Iyer joins the Dads and Moms of Michigan Board

Dads and Moms of Michigan is excited to announce a new board member, Alexandra Laxmi Iyer.

As a seasoned "eventing" veteran, Alexandra is most passionate about driving positive change through her work. As a single mother and step-parent, Alexandra fully understands the impact our evolving family structures have on our children. It is her hope that she can help inspire communities to come together to protect our children from emotional abuse and protect a child's right to access and receive love from all of their parents. "I am very excited to funnel my energy into such a positive organization that is committed to sowing the seeds of peaceful co-parenting relationships." Iyer said.

Given her background, Iyer will be focusing on breathing life into the awareness rallies throughout the state of Michigan. With Iyer's help, Dads and Moms of Michigan is already planning a Fall rally scheduled to take place on September 14, 2016 in Lansing and a second iteration of the Hostile Aggressive Parenting & Parental Alienation Awareness Day rally on April 25, 2017 in Oakland County.

"We're excited to repeat the success of the Oakland County Parental Alienation Awareness Day rally into other areas of the State so that education on this important issue is available to more and ultimately, the lives of more children are positively impacted." Langlois said.

For more information about upcoming rallies or to support a rally in your area as an event sponsor, please contact Alexandra Iyer, Dads and Moms of Michigan, laxmiiyera@dadsandmomosofmicigan.org.
