Dumont Aviation Group and Timothy Lomakin join together to launch Dumont JETS West

New Castle, DE/September 3, 2020 – Driven by a shared passion for business aviation and a commitment to integrity and client service, and united by a common past, DUMONT AVIATION GROUP, INC. and TIMOTHY LOMAKIN are proud to announce that they have joined together to lead the expansion of Dumont’s operations in the Golden State through Dumont’s west coast franchise, Dumont JETS West.

Previously Dumont’s Director of Operations, Tim Lomakin will lead Dumont’s growth on the West Coast, offering Dumont’s full slate of aviation services, including aircraft charter, sales, management, maintenance and repair, and parts.

“We’re very pleased to welcome Tim back to the Dumont family and excited to continue growing our presence on the West Coast to better serve our clients. Tim is a person of high integrity and character, he’s a highly knowledgeable aviation professional, and we’re just happy he chose to come back to us to continue his already impressive aviation career,” says Dan Piraino, Dumont’s Chief Executive Officer. “He’s the right person to lead our West Coast expansion,” added Piraino.

“I’m excited to get back to work with the Dumont family, this time in a role that allows me to grow an already successful brand into the premier aviation company on the West Coast,” says Lomakin. “It’s satisfying for me personally, and it’s great for business, to work with people of such high integrity, just doing what we love.”

Dumont JETS West will operate out of its offices located at 19301 Campus Drive, Suite 262, Santa Ana, California. Mr. Lomakin can be reached by phone at 714-856-7255 or by email at tim.lomakin@dumontaviation.com.
