

Golden Tree Jewellers Named an Authorized Retailer of Tudor Luxury Watches

Find timepieces from the watch brand's highly coveted Black Bay and Fastrider Black Shield lines, among others, at the jewellery retailer in British Columbia.

LANGLEY, British Columbia, April 22, 2019 (Newswire.com)

- Golden Tree Jewellers, a fine jewellery and luxury watch retailer in British Columbia, has recently added Tudor watches to their inventory. Customers in Langley and the metro Vancouver area can now stop by and find their favorite Tudor models, like the ones from the popular Black Bay line.

Founded by the creator of Rolex, Tudor carries with it an esteemed legacy in watchmaking while also catering to those looking for a more affordable luxury watch.

In the present day, the company stands on its own feet as watch aficionados have come to know the brand for its state-of-the-art technology, creative innovations, and classic look. Combining high-end features with more modest ones, like Tudor's sleek ceramic watch case and the ever-practical fabric strap, ensures that the watchmaker always stays one step ahead of its competitors.

At Baselworld this year, the Tudor Watch Company released new iterations of its beloved Black Bay line. Some, like the Black Bay Bronze and P01, reminiscence on meaningful moments in the brand's history, while the newest additions to the S&G collection celebrate the company's bright future.

Find the newest members of the Tudor watch family at Golden Tree Jewellers today. To learn more about the brand's collections available at their showroom, contact the retailer by calling (604)-530-7221 or emailing info@goldentreejewellers.com.
