Northeastern Fine Jewelry Brings Back Hearts on Fire Jewelry to Schenectady Location

The jewelry retailer's Glens Falls location will also celebrate its two-year anniversary with a reception open to the public.

NEW YORK, March 14, 2019 (Newswire.com) - Northeastern Fine Jewelry has much to celebrate this month, and they're extending an invitation to all fine jewelry aficionados in the greater Capitol region and beyond.

Hearts on Fire, the fine jewelry brand renowned for creating “the world’s most perfectly cut diamond,” has made its return to Northeastern Fine Jewelry’s Schenectady location. Now, local jewelry lovers can browse the designer’s collection of diamond-studded wedding bands, engagement rings, and fashion jewelry pieces.

For those who were a fan of the jewelry pieces celebrities wore this awards season, look to Hearts on Fire’s fashion collections for styles straight from the red carpet; the Lorelei chandelier diamond earrings donned by Jane Seymour at the Oscars, for example, can be found at NEFJ’s Schenectady storefront starting this month.

The new Hearts on Fire additions, coupled with NEFJ’s already-expansive inventory, ensures that anyone coming to the New York-based retailer will have everything they need to look their best for any special occasion.

Additionally, Northeastern Fine Jewelry will celebrate the two year anniversary of their Glens Falls showroom on March 16th from 12PM-4PM.

For those who attend, there will be live music courtesy of Rich Ortiz, great food options, wine and champagne, as well as giveaways held every 30 minutes. The retailer will also give out discount scratch offs all day while supplies last, so make sure to stop by the event early to take advantage of these savings.

An RSVP is highly recommended for the Glen Falls anniversary party, so those interested in stopping by should contact the store directly.
