THE WAY BEYOND

Available Dec, 20 2023

ISBN: 978-1-7334288-4-2

EISBN: 978-1-7334288-7-3

The Way Beyond is a masterful work of literary science-fiction—which on its surface tells the tale of world-famous author Halycon Sage, and his un-realized quest to save the world. While beneath the surface it offers a profound exploration of identity and faith. Through symbolic themes and subtle references, the book delves into the complexities of human existence. It examines different attitudes towards religion and the struggle to define oneself. The novel also highlights the importance of preserving the Earth and our connection with nature. This critical analysis serves as a gateway to deeper reflection and invites readers to approach the narrative with a philosophical and open-minded perspective.

THE BOOK OF SQUIDLY LIGHT

ISBN: 978-1-7334288-5-9

EISBN: 978-1-7334288-8-0

RELEASE DATE TBD 2024

The Book of Squidly Light follows the residents of Dry Creek Gulch as they navigate post-apocalyptic life and grapple with the arrival of the Squidren, a group of extraterrestrial beings from another dimension. As the Squidren and residents of Dry Creek Gulch interact, they must confront and navigate the challenges of intercultural relations. However, their efforts are complicated by the discovery of a mysterious perimeter wall that encloses their town and raises questions about the nature of their existence and the barriers between different worlds. Throughout the book, themes of cultural exploration, understanding, and coexistence are explored, highlighting the complexities and possibilities of intercultural relations in a changing world.

SAGE'S MULTIVERSE MINI-SERIES

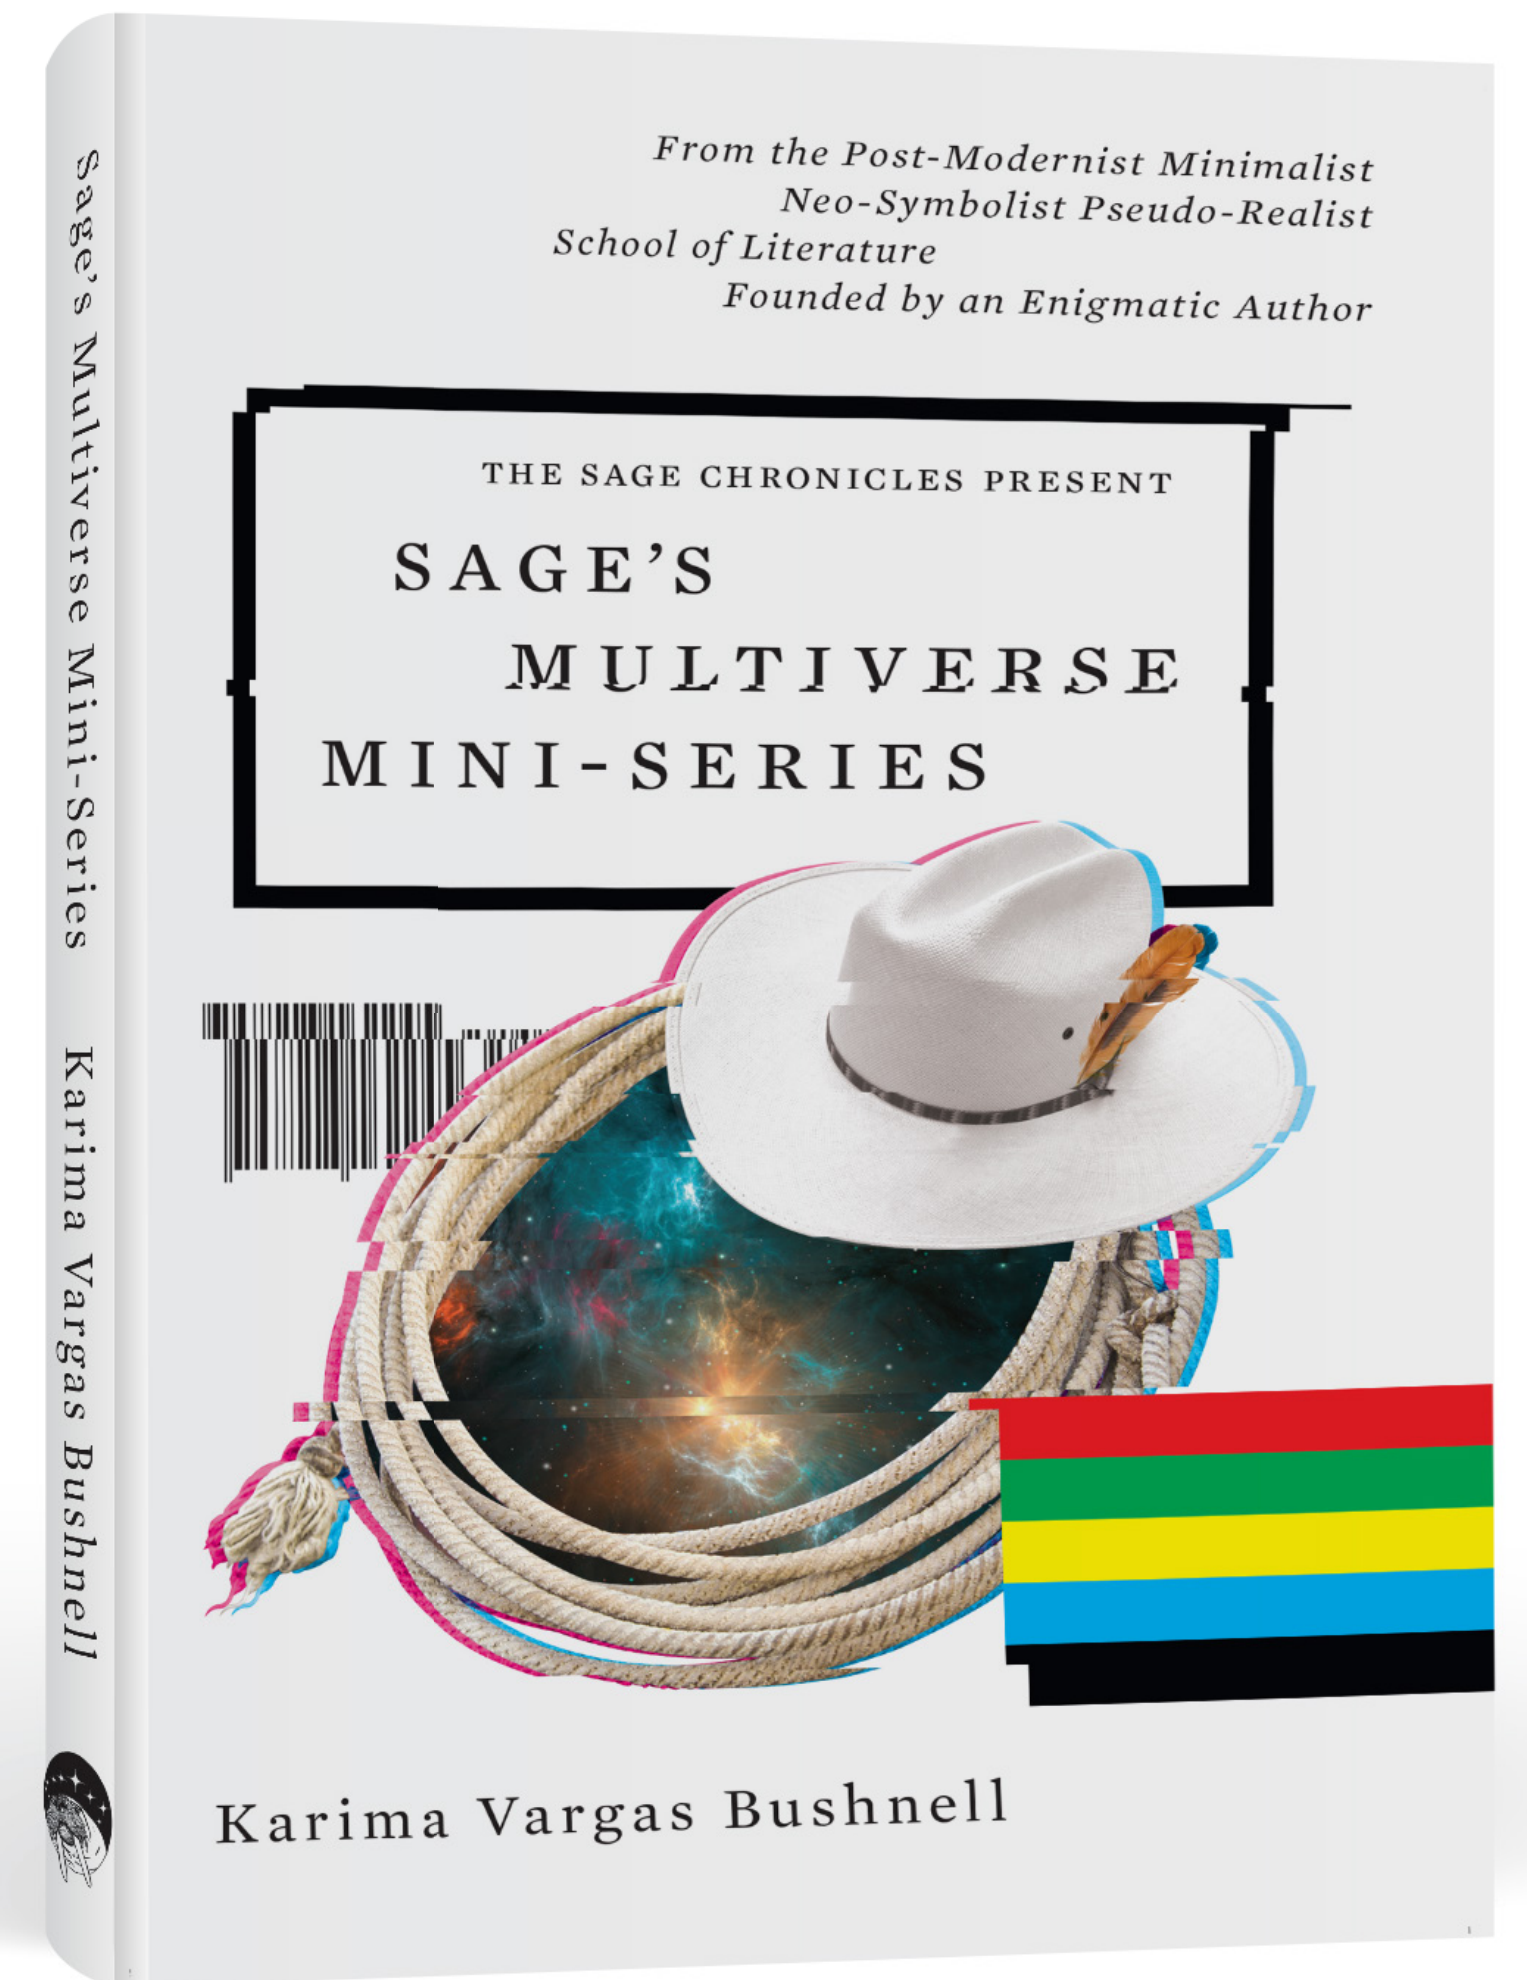

Available Nov 30 2023

ISBN: 978-1-7334288-35-5

EISBN: 978-1-7334288-66-6

Sage's Multiverse Mini-series is a companion collection to Karima Vargas Bushnell's series The Sage Chronicles. Originally existing as a humble blog segment in the multiverse, this compilation has undergone a fascinating evolution, transforming into the immersive mini-series that it is today.

In the preface, Jeanene Harter beautifully captures the essence of Karima's unique storytelling, stating; "Multiverse is a galactic block of Swiss cheese. It's a thing on its own, but as soon as you jump into one of the holes (a book, a post, a poem), you never know where you're going to come out. And that's Karima's magic. You never know where you're going, but you know it's going to be one AWESOME ride."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

With a Master's degree in Intercultural Relations and a wealth of experience in teaching and facilitating workshops, Karima Vargas Bushnell has dedicated her career to bridging cultural gaps and fostering understanding. Her rich background, which includes academic exploration, multicultural family influences, and various professional roles, has shaped her unique perspective and expertise. From designing programs and workshops to collaborating with organizations and faith leaders, Karima has been instrumental in promoting intercultural dialogue and inclusivity. Her writings, collaborations, and initiation into a Sufi lineage further reflect her deep exploration of mysticism and world religions. Through her fiction, she continues to challenge borders and actively engage readers in the quest for global unity.

- Karima taught Intercultural Communication at Metropolitan State University, Antioch University's Weekend College, and the University of St. Thomas.
- She received the Student of Color Ally Award from the University of St. Thomas.
- Karima designed programs and workshops for various organizations, including the National Science Foundation, the Association of Twin Cities Colleges and Universities, and the St. Paul Area Council of Churches.
- Her writings include "Culture Clash Dialogues" for the American Society for Training and Development, "Keys to the Global Village: Unlocking Intercultural Relations," and her Master's thesis on biculturalism among immigrants, refugees, and Native Americans in the USA.
- Karima co-authored "Cultural Detective Islam" as part of the Cultural Detective series used worldwide for intercultural training.
- She collaborated with Jewish, Christian, and Muslim faith leaders to create the Walls into Bridges triologue.
- Karima's play, "Voices on the Waves: A Multicultural Comedy-Drama in Two Acts," was performed by a Muslim/Jewish/Christian cast for an interfaith peace weekend.
- She has a close association with writer, mystic, and world religions scholar Lex Hixon/Shaykh Nur al-Jerrahi, including initiation into his Sufi lineage and her embrace of Islam.
- Karima's fiction books received positive reviews in previous editions and The Book of Squidly Light was selected for the American Library Association's Booklist Magazine.
