

Our Partnership with the Minton Jones Company

The Wounded Warrior Program has many functions. One of those functions is to generate revenue for our ongoing mission and objectives through sales of business supplies and the sourcing and fulfillment of specialty health, emergency products, equipment, and appliances. The supply portion of the Wounded Warrior Program is powered by and facilitated through a close partnership with the Minton Jones Company.

The Minton Jones Company has been a Federal/ GSA and commercial business and equipment supplier for 69 years. Minton Jones Company began its life from military roots founded at the end of World War II by Army Air Corp pilot Lt. Travis W Jones and Army veteran William B Minton.

Today, Minton Jones is a 2nd generation business small business that is still one of the fastest growing supply companies, who's mission and objective is the same today as it was in 1946, Total commitment and dedication to providing the best products and service to all of its customers, every day.

The alignment of the complete and total dedication of the Minton Jones Company, combined with the mission and objectives of the Wounded Warrior Program is the reason that our partnership was forged.
