

Extra Space Asia takes 1st place in the Superbrands Awards for two consecutive years

Singapore, 04 February 2019 – Extra Space Asia is proud to announce its latest milestone as Favourite Self-Storage Brand in the Superbrands Award 2019.

A consecutive winner in this category since 2018, this achievement positions the company as the first-ever Self-Storage brand to receive this award two years in a row.

The Superbrands Award is world-renowned and the largest independent accolade offered to the most outstanding brands in their industry. Attaining the coveted Superbrands status reflects stronger brand presence, prestige, professionalism and quality assurance to consumers and suppliers.

Extending our reach, expanding our offerings

Extra Space Asia is one of the pioneering Self-Storage solution providers in Singapore. Introduced to the market 12 years ago, the company has consistently widened its reach with state-of-the-art storage facilities in Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Korea, Japan and Taiwan; there are a total of nine storage facilities in Singapore today, all offering a suite of services and storage solutions.

Rental flexibility

Customers can choose storage spaces ranging from 16 to 450 square feet. Customised based on individual needs, rental periods start from as short as two weeks, with the easy option to upgrade or downgrade the storage spaces at any time.

Secured and optimised spaces

Highly secured, self-contained storage spaces are equipped with a lock mechanism that integrates with state-of-the-art 24-hour security systems. Customers can opt for air-conditioned and dehumidified storage spaces, which are maintained between 23 °C to 25 °C. Features also include a personal access code system for customers to access the property at their convenience, 24/7, all year round.

Great service as a winning formula

“The secret to our success has always been our attention to customer service,” says Extra Space Asia Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Kenneth Worsdale. “Customer service goes beyond a friendly smile and greeting. True customer service, for us, is understanding every self-storage need, and doing all it takes to satisfy that demand through quality product offerings and exemplary service.”
