THREE DEGREES SALON Opening Reception & Art Exhibition

“Connected: We are closer than you think”

To celebrate THREE DEGREES SALON’s opening, the salon will host a reception party and a unique art exhibition. “Connected: We are closer than you think” is a collaboration of three artist friends – THREE DEGREES SALON creative director Kei Hirata, Conceptual Photographer Brick Thana, and Videographer Derek Siyarngnork.

Three degrees of connection, which is the salon’s main theme, is conveyed through a photography exhibition and a short film that showcases hair, style, and diversity of people in New York. Six New York-based influencers from diverse backgrounds have participated in this project as models and video subjects.
