Automation Accelirator Program
RPA90X

ACCELIRATE is very excited to announce it's 90-day Automation Accelerator program RPA90X! Do you need to get your Automation Initiatives in shape? Are you struggling to identify the right process-es to show immediate return of manhours back to the business? RPA90X was built for just these

ACCELIRATE was born from the Enterprise Consulting world and understands the challenges Fortune 1000 companies face in their Automation journeys, starting with Platform Installation, setting up Inf-structure with IT, to building your Automation Process Pipeline, and ultimately Development and Te-

When you are first embarking on your Automation journey, there will be a lot of questions, a lot of uncertainty of which product is best suited, and usually this is all being done by someone that doesn't even have an Automation Background. Regardless of the person's background, finding the right info-mation to select the best platform and the right resources to perform a proper pilot program can

The RPA90X was designed to get in and get real results through our E^3 strategy

EDUCATE	EVALUATE	EXECUT
• Educate – RPA Capabilitie and limitatior	• Obtain details for selected process	• Automate POC process
• Identify possible implementation areas and low hanging frui	• Process installation	• Present performance improvement metrics
• Select process for discovery	• Verify technical approach and assumptions	• Plan broader implementation
• Define digital transformation	• Document current costs and performance measurement criteria	• Ongoing support and maintenance
1 – 2 Weeks	1 – 2 Weeks	8 – 10 Weeks

Too often too much time is spent on the Educate and Evaluate portion, because large consulting companies know this is a ripe ground to try to get into other areas of your business. The end result is months spent evaluating things for a Proof of Concept, and then you are left with only a few proceses in place without a real ROI to show the business. ACCELIRATE knows that with the right delivery Pod we can deliver real results fast
